

October 2016 Special

The landlord, regulars and CAMRA members celebrate at the George and Dragon in Hudswell. Picture by Stuart Boulton.

Co-operative pub is the best in Yorkshire

In August 2008 the George and Dragon pub in the North Yorkshire Village of Hudswell closed its doors, seemingly for the last time, as the owners faced bankruptcy. 18 months later the residents of the village launched a community share issue and raised £200,000 from 140 members to buy and reopen the pub.read more;

The Gardeners Rest

MORE THAN A PUB • A COMMUNITY HUB

The Gardeners Rest, nestling in the fast changing Sheffield district of Neepsend, is up for sale. An exciting opportunity has emerged to preserve this much loved pub and the two floors above it for social benefit.

You are invited to purchase community shares* in The Gardeners Rest to ensure its future as a traditional pub and to invest in its development as a hub for the many communities that choose to use it.

A minimum investment of £100 will give you a stake in a professionally managed pub and community facility that will create supported employment and training opportunities, provide activity space for the arts, and offer good accommodation.

The share offer opens at 10am on Saturday 15th October and closes at 2pm on Saturday 19th November.
